One day The Hodja was walking around in the market place. He saw a bright-coloured bird for sale for 12 gold coins. Hodja was amazed. He approached the crowd, gathered around the bird and its seller. 'How can a bird be so expensive?' he asked the people watching the bird. 'This is a special bird,' they explained, 'It can talk like a human being!' This gave Hodja an idea. He went straight to his home, grabbed his turkey and brought him to the market place. He stood near the man selling the parrot. 'Turkey, for sale, ten gold coins!' he yelled. 'Hodja Effendi, how can a turkey worth ten gold coins?' the shoppers protested. 'There is a bird there for 12 gold.' insisted the admant Hodja. 'But Hodja Effendi, that bird can talk like a human being.' the people tried to reason. But Hodja was cold blooded. 'And this turkey can think like a human being.' he countered.
