Yesterday was an exciting day for us. We chose our class president. Our teacher wrote the names of the candidates on the board. Merve, Efe, Fatih and Cansu were the candidates. We wrote a name on a piece of paper, folded it and put it in a ballot box. When everyone voted, our teacher counted the names. Fatih became our president. I'm happy with the results because he's responsible and respectful. He's also kind and helpful.
